Only to think, next week, at this time, I ll be saying good-bye to you, Mary Raymond. Marjorie Dean s brown eyes rested very wistfully on the sunny-haired girl beside her in the big porch swing. You know now, just how dreadfully I felt two years ago when I had to keep thinking about saying good-bye to you, returned Mary in the same wistful intonation. It was terrible. And after you had gone! Well-it was a good deal worse. Oh, Marjorie, I wish I could live this last year over again. If only-- Marjorie laid light fingers on Mary s lips. You mustn t speak of some things, Lieutenant, she said quickly. If you do I won t listen. Forget everything except the wonderful summer we ve had together. Mary caught the soft little hand in both hers. It has been wonderful, she agreed rather unsteadily. I ll have the memory of it to treasure when I m away off in Colorado. I can t believe that I am really going so far away from you. I...
