"Julian Pleasants offers unbiased insight into the history of Nova Southeastern University. Drawing from oral interviews and primary resources in NSU's archives, Dr. Pleasants engagingly documents the key events and main personalities that enabled the evolution and growth of NSU from its not-for-profit charter in 1964, admitting seventeen graduate students in 1967, to a thriving private not-for-profit university serving over 27,000 students today." Dr. George L. Hanbury II, President, Nova Southeastern University "Nova Southeastern University's continued success as a premier educational institution can be attributed to the same factors that drove its founders: a tenacity to succeed against overwhelming odds, a persistent entrepreneurial drive, and a willingness to be innovative in areas where others rely on a tradition. The book chronicles the efforts of these early pioneers as well as those persons who participated in the development of this unique institution." H. Wayne Huizenga, Nova Southeastern University Board of Trustees Nova Southeastern University is a flourishing university with a fascinating past. Arising from the shared dream of local community businessmen in Broward County, Florida, the university was chartered in 1964. At the time, it had no buildings to its name just an empty plot of land and a dedicated group of visionary advocates. On the fiftieth anniversary of NSU's founding, this book tells the amazing story of what is now one of the largest not-for-profit universities in the United States. Today, Nova Southeastern University serves more than 27,000 students and has produced more than 150,000 alumni. Its main campus in Fort Lauderdale is beautifully landscaped, with modern classroom buildings, an array of student housing options, state-of-the-art athletic facilities, and a unique joint-use library, the largest library building in the state of Florida....
