Dog Ear Publishing, LLC. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 88 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.5in. x 0.2in. Nine-year-old twins Max and Miriame think its just another summer afternoon spent poking around in their great-grandfathers old boxes in the attic-until they happen upon something that takes their breath away. Hidden in the bottom of an old trunk, the twins find a stone unlike anything they have ever seen, a stone which magically glows with its own light. When the children touch it, they are instantly transported to an unknown place. What is this stone How does it do these things What exactly is it doing, anyway Will the twins be able to get home again And can they figure out the secret stones mysterious powers before they get into even more serious trouble Together with their boisterous friend, Chip, Max and Miriame set out to explore these strange happenings-until suddenly they are in over their heads! Mary A. Wheeler lives in Scarborough, Maine with her family, which includes two children, three dogs and two cats. When she is not teaching in a local elementary school, she can be found enjoying the outdoors, walking the Maine beaches, gardening, reading or writing. Her writings for children include poems, middle-grade fantasy, and the Secret Stone chapter book series. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN.
